

Society

By MELLIFLOIA. Tuesday, April 14, 1914.

"HOW society fads change," exclaimed one of our matrons the other day. "Now it's tango, and everybody is tango mad, but I was reminded by some old papers I was going over that ten years ago we were just as crazy about French conversation lessons. I could hardly believe it, but it is more than ten years since we had 'in our midst' that great linguist, Prof. Nesbit, who put society through contortions with French idioms in chorus, and had us all studying Paris guide books and French dictionaries. He didn't get the prices that the tango teachers are commanding, but he, too, had overflow meetings and had to double up his classes. He was the social lion of the season and could not accept all the dinner invitations that were showered upon him.

According to my predecessor who wrote the society column ten years ago, a delightful luncheon party was given by a dozen prominent society women at the Omaha club, with Prof. Nesbit as the only man present. It was a progressive luncheon and the women took turns sitting at the right of the social lion.

"Tiz" Fixed My Sore, Tired Feet

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath.

When your feet feel all tired out—just try "TIZ." It's grand—You'll see your feet will dance with joy; no more pain in corns, callouses and bunions. There's nothing like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.

The exercises will close with the singing of America by a choir of sixty voices and the unfurling of a large American flag over the heads of the audience.

Railroaders Find Omaha Good Center

General Freight Agent Brown and Coal Traffic Manager Cameron of the Illinois Central are in from Chicago, spending the day here looking over the company properties and calling on the business men.

Both of the Illinois Central freight men assert that while business is not just what they would like to have it, it has been much worse in times past and now shows indications of improving. Omaha, they say, is one of the best cities on the system and they are well pleased with the business being done in and out of here.

NUGENT IS IDENTIFIED BY POSTAL SAVINGS CLERK

Philip Nugent, alias Jack Lynch, who is facing the charge of forging postal savings bank certificates here for $2, was positively identified by Miss Clara Southard, clerk in charge of the postal savings bank at the Omaha postoffice.

Nugent presented the certificates of his roommate and endorsed the name of the other man and secured $2, in October. He then went to Denver, and federal authorities followed the man's trail through half a dozen states before he was finally arrested in Phoenix, Ariz., in January. His case will be presented to the federal grand jury, which is in session here.

The loss of the $2 fell on Miss Southard and is the first case of the kind to be brought in the state of Nebraska.

C. W. Bennett, arraigned as proprietor of the London hotel, in which the Zimmerman girl, with Anna Smith and Harry McCloud stayed one morning, was fined $20 and costs, which he paid.

Abraham Aboud, who conducts a bath house at 107 South Fourteenth street, where Agatha Zimmerman and the Smith girl journeyed to change their waists before starting for the Sarry Mills roadhouse, was fined $25 and costs, as was Sam Karam, an inmate, who is alleged to have given the girls liquor. Aboud agreed later to abandon his business. Bonds offered for Sam Karam, who appealed, were refused on the ground that too many bonds were being furnished by a single bondsmen. Another bondsmen was afterward secured.

Ahko Appeals.

Louis Ahko, 149 Douglas street, in whose case no derogatory evidence was introduced, aside from the alleged offense of selling two bowls of chili to two 15-year-old boys who were found in the place by Frank Williams an officer, was fined $30 and costs. Ahko appealed to the district court and furnished $200 bonds.

Hiram Moore, clerk of the Carleton hotel, who rented rooms the morning of April 3 to Agatha Zimmerman, Agnes Smith, Harry McCloud and Claud Thompson, was bound over to the district court with bonds fixed at $500. Moore was charged with aiding and abetting the delinquency of Agatha.

Complaints against H. Weiner, proprietor of the Savoy hotel; Louis Kaplan, proprietor of the Albany hotel, and Paul Rauch, manager of the Carleton, were dismissed, owing to lack of evidence.

A complaint was filed against Charles E. Fanning, owner of the Savoy hotel property for maintaining a nuisance by renting property to undesirable citizens.

Like complaints were filed against Frank Crawford, who owns a house raided on several occasions by the police at 114 North Twenty-fourth street, and against Mabel B. Lionhardt, owner of property at 2002 California street.

Paving Contractor is Permitted to Change His Bid

Objection to allowing a paving contractor to change his bid after the bids have been received by the city council was made by Commissioner Thomas McGovern, who said the practice might lead the city into difficulties.

The specific thing to which McGovern objected was that the council permitted Charles E. Fanning said a mistake had been made and he had entered a bid on a paving brick he did not handle.

Commissioners approved the tabulations by a vote of five to one, McGovern objecting.

MILLER THINKS COMMISSION WILL BE READY IN DUE TIME

En route home to Chicago from the freight rate hearing at Lincoln, before the Nebraska Railway commission, S. P. Miller, general freight agent of the Northwestern, is spending the day in town. Mr. Miller will not even venture an opinion as to what the decision of the commission will be. He anticipates a decision some time next month.

Under the ruling of the Interstate Commerce commission, the new freight rates into Iowa and Nebraska will become effective in June. On account of the decision in the Minnesota case, Mr. Miller is of the opinion that the Nebraska commission will be ready with its opinion a little prior to that time.

CITIZENS PROTEST THE CLOSING OF STREETS

A loud protest is going up from citizens in the north central portion of the city over closing the Twentieth street boulevard while the gutters at the intersecting streets are being raised.

In raising the gutters at the boulevard intersections, all of the east and west streets from Locust to Pinkney, a distance of more than one-half mile, have been closed, thus making it impossible to go by team or automobile from one portion of Kountze Place to another without going a long distance around. What applies to the streets also applies to the alleys. All of the streets have been closed for more than a week and there is nothing to indicate that they are to be opened in the near future.
